Dear colleagues, dear friends,

We have simulating conference program which will be complemented by the last abstract.

It will be organized in close collaboration with ESPT. After the most successful 2014 conference ever with the highest number of participants we are planning again with the scientific committee of the last arrived abstract.

The last day, sessions will be constructed around personal studies of physiological variations chronic diseases and under the clinical prospective sessions.

Starting the first day with Systems Medicine we have 2 specific series: Genomics and Proteomics, and Personalised Health and Individual Therapy.

July 20th.

We are now waiting the abstracts for posters presentations until July 20th.

And we hope to see you there.
